

LONG SHADOWS

2022 SEQUEL SYRAH

JEB DUNNUCK

"The 2022 Sequel Syrah continues the tradition in its embrace of 100% varietal Syrah that's bursting in full-bodied, meaty layers of smooth black fruit, baking spice, and wild garrigue. The oak is substantial but supportive. Grapes were sourced from StoneTree, Red Heaven, and Bacchus. Age-worthy another 10+ years.

"Velvety and compact on the palate, this full-bodied red goes deep with dark fruit and chocolate, adding hints of earthiness and coffee. Full and opulent and lightly chewy at the end, it finishes long and firm."

"The 2022 Sequel Syrah opens with a brooding blend of black currants and mentholated herbs offset by nuances of cola and spice. It sweeps across the palate with silky textures and masses of ripe red and black fruits underscored by crunchy mineral tones. A citrus tinge adds lift as the 2022 finishes long and structured, leaving a hint of licorice to fade slowly."
